MY FAVOURITE FILM – AMADEUS

My favourite film is Amadeus. I've seen it many times. It is a drama and a historical movie. It first appeared in year 1984 in USA. The director was Miloš Forman. He is Czech and a lot of people, who worked on the film, are Czechs too. The film is just over 160 minutes long. The film got 8 Oscars.

The film describes life of ingenious harmonist Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart. The narrator of plot is Mozart's rival, average musician Salieri. He speaks about Mozart's arrival to Wien, about his charisma and fantastic music, but also about his childish character and his profligate living. He also describes his hate to Mozart and rage, when people like Mozart more than him. In the end of film, there is a brilliant scene of Mozart's death and his funeral.

Why I like the film? Because I like Mozart's music and his life is very interesting. The actors are very good. Especially F. Murray Abraham as Salieri and Tom Hulce as Mozart are fantastic. There is also good story and camera. I like the film all the more, that there is a Czech director and other Czech people. In the film I don't like only some historically inaccuracies.

I think, the theme of film is interesting, because most of us know Mozart's music, but not him as a person. Some of the viewers will maybe discover, that classical music is very beautiful too. It also shows, how is human hate powerful.

Tom Hulce as Mozart

F. Murray Abraham as Salieri
